

Code of Ethics

Code of Ethics Be sincerely interested in and dedicated to the responsibility we have. Be loyal to the department and fellow firefighters. Be aggressive in the pursuit of all education and training opportunities. Be cautious. Guard speech both at the station and away from the station. Be the type of person who inspires confidence and respect. Be able to accept criticism graciously and accept praise, honors, and advancement modestly.